THE MESSAGE OF THE VICE PRESIDENT

With its new structure, resulted after the 2010 elections, SCM had a difficult and syncopated start, for which we are partially responsible. We overcame this arduous time and now we are striving to achieve the objectives undertaken by the majority of the Council's members.

The vote of confidence expressed by the teams of judges has become a support in our efforts to implement their will through the projects already started.

Thus, SCM carried out institutional, legislative, consultative and organizational activities in order to develop a new procedure for promoting at the High Court of Cassation and Justice, to strengthen the functional capacity of the Judicial Inspection, to appoint NIM's management and to optimize the operation of this institution.

SCM plans in the immediate future to take the necessary measures to prepare the system for implementing the new Codes. Another initiative will be to complete the regulations governing the appointment to executive positions, other than those subject to examination or competition, in order to standardize the procedures for the promotion within the Judiciary.

Consistent to the inter-institutional dialogue and the desire to develop a close and constructive cooperation with various political and judicial actors, we've had several meetings with representatives of parliamentary groups, on the topic of launching the National Project for Justice.

We believe that our task is to design a national project for the judicial system, which, on the medium and long term, will provide the main parameters of the public policies for the Council and the Judiciary - a project that will represent a reform from within the system, not outside it.

All these steps, undertaken in the short period since we operate, rely on the will of the Council's members to build an institutional image based on integrity, morality and competence.

George Bălan, Prosecutor
Vice-president, SCM, 2011

STRENGTHENING THE SCM CAPACITY

ELECTIONS

Election of SCM members, representatives of magistrates

The first general assembly for the preliminary elections for assigning the candidates took place on April 29th 2011.

The calendar of the elections was amended due to the fact that the Plenum of the Council partially admitted the complaint lodged with regard to the procedural shortcomings of the elections within the Prosecutors' Office attached to Brasov Court of First Instance and ordered for the elections to be reorganized on May 11th 2011.

The date of the general assemblies for electing three new SCM members has changed: the initial date according to the calendar was June 17th 2011; the current date of the elections, according to the Plenum Decisions no. 332 and 333/May 26th 2011 is June 24th, 2011.

Election of SCM members, representatives of civil society

On June 6th, 2011, the Senate appointed one member of the Council, representing the civil society, namely Mrs. Corina Dumitrescu, dean of a university. On June 22nd, 2011, the Senate appointed the second representative of the civil society within the Council, namely Mrs. Georgiana Iorgulescu, director of a NGO operating in the legal field.

ENTERING INTO FORCE OF THE NEW CODES

Entry into force of the new Civil Code – October 1st, 2011

Within the Plenum session, on May 26th, 2011, the members of the Council discussed the necessary measures to be taken in order to prepare the judicial system for entering into force of the new Civil Code on October 1st, 2011. Therefore an inter-institutional Working Group was established and a new project „The codes are coming!” was launched, for implementing the new Code. On June 2nd, a first meeting took place, with representatives of the majority of the stakeholders. The WG discussions aim at identifying adequate means to implement the new code. The participants took into account the need to put together available resources and to ensure optimal communication among institutions in order to disseminate information for training the professionals in the field of law and for finding quick and appropriate forms to enhance the implementation of the codes.

THE COUNCIL'S RESPONSE TO THE NEW DRAFT LAW OF REVISING THE CONSTITUTION

Considering the new draft law of revising the Constitution, the SCM analyzed the provisions of the draft law and proposed a series of observations, which were submitted to the Constitutional Court on June 15th 2011. The observations took into account also the individually expressed opinions of magistrates and professional associations.

In essence, the document drafted by the SCM states that the revision limits of the Constitution are affected, taking into consideration that some provisions infringe on the independence of the judiciary. Excluding from the jurisdictional competence of some types of cases, based on political reasons, and restructuring the SCM are reasons that can affect the stability of the system and the accomplishment of its role.

Also, the SCM states its intention to request the official opinion concerning the conformity of the draft law to the European standards on conserving and strengthening the state, to the European Commission for Democracy through Law (the Venice Commission), to which Romania is a member.

As well, the SCM pointed out that, although the provisions of the EU Council Directive 2005/212/JAI on the confiscation of illegal property have to be observed, the amendment of art. 44 paragraph 8 of the Constitution on the presumption on the legal aquirement of property has to be made in a new manner, in order to comply with the fundamental rights of the citizens and the EU best practices in this field.

In order to assume the legal obligation to protect the magistrates' professional reputation, the Superior Council of Magistracy, as a response to the recent public statements of the Romanian president and of other political actors, stated the following:

- Any critics concerning judges and prosecutors are not allowed. Any kind of accuses general or groundless, weaken the authority of the judiciary and decrease the public confidence.
- The SCM respects the other powers of the state and requires for the other powers to respect the judiciary and to acknowledge the authority of judges.
- The SCM considers that also indebted to magistrates, the financial and economical crisis was overcome, and the rights of the petitioners were thus respected.

TRANSPARENCY AND ACCOUNTABILITY

The relation with the Parliament

The representatives of the Superior Council of Magistracy participated to the works of the judicial commissions of the Senate and the Chamber of Deputies analyzing the draft law for the amendment of Law no. 303/2004 on the statute of judges and prosecutors and of Law no. 304/2004 on the judicial organization, as well as the draft law concerning the entry into force of the new criminal code and the amendment of laws containing criminal provisions. The core issues of these draft laws concern the magistrate's material accountability, the closing of some courts and prosecutor offices.

On May 2nd 2011, the members of the SCM met with the representatives of the parliamentary group of UDMR (the Hungarian minority) and with the parliamentary group of the other national minorities. On May 4th 2011, they had a meeting with the representatives of the joined parliamentary group USL in order to address issues like: the entry into force of the new codes, the administration of justice, the constitutional role of the three powers under the rule of law, as well as the beginning of the national project for justice.

The relation with the Government

The representatives of the SCM participated to the works of the commission established at the level of the Ministry of Justice on the elaboration of the law for the entry into force of the Criminal procedure Code.

As well, the representatives of the SCM participated to the consultation initiated by the Ministry of Justice in order to identify the legislative solutions for strengthening the magistrate's disciplinary accountability.

On May 26th 2011, the SCM Plenum welcomed Mr. Emil Boc, the Prime-Minister of Romania, at the Council's premises. The discussions concerned the length of procedures, unification of the jurisprudence, the entry into force of the new codes, the need to optimize the schemes of personnel and the financing of justice.

Cooperation agreement between the Superior Council of Magistracy and the Council of Mediation

On May 26th 2011, the Superior Council of Magistracy concluded a Cooperation Agreement with the Council of Mediation to be carried out over a period of five years. The main objectives of the protocol are focused on increasing public confidence in the judicial system and increasing efficiency of the activity within the courts and the prosecutors' offices by promoting mediation.

Cooperation Agreement between the Superior Council of Magistracy and the National Union of Bars of Romania

On May 19th 2011, the Superior Council of Magistracy concluded the Cooperation Agreement with the National Union of Bars of Romania, to be carried out over a period of five years. According to this Protocol, the two institutions agreed to collaborate for increasing the public confidence in justice, for increasing the respect for the independency and the impartiality of justice, for the magistrates' professionalism, the respect for judges' and prosecutors' irremovability, independency and statute, as well as for increasing the respect of the independency of lawyers and of the citizens' rights to judicial assistance provided by professionals entitled by law to perform as lawyers and for increasing the quality of justice.

The petitioner's guideline

A new version of the petitioner's guideline was drafted. According to the general information presented within the guideline, it emphasizes some of the main duties of the Council, such as analyzing the non-adequate attitude of judges or prosecutors, the breach of the professional duties in relation with the litigants or any other disciplinary offences. The guideline also responds to other frequent questions, by stretching several actions where the Council can not be involved, such as: the pending cases, the judgments rendered by courts, the procedural measures rendered by the prosecutors, the independence of magistrates, the appeals, the judicial assistance of litigants.

HUMAN RESOURCES WITHIN THE JUDICIARY (1)

HUMAN RESOURCES WITHIN THE JUDICIARY (2)

Improvement of the procedures for transfer, promotion, secondment and appointing into leading positions

Within the Plenum session on May 26th 2011, the Council approved the proposals for amending the Regulation on the transfer, the secondment, the delegation of judges and prosecutors as well as for the appointment of judges and prosecutors in leading positions and of the appointment of judges in prosecutor positions and of prosecutors in judge position.

The main amendments of the procedure on the appointment of judges into leading positions consists in a new requirement for the court leading board and the court president to give a reasoned endorsement on the appointment of judges as presidents of sections and a change in competence by transferring from the Council sections to the Plenum the organisation of an interview for the candidates.

The procedure for appointment of prosecutors into leading positions was amended in a similar manner as for judges, the difference consisting in the fact that the respective prosecutor shall present 10 specific works related to his activity.

The procedure for the appointment of judges into leading positions within the High Court of Cassation and Justice was amended by mentioning that the candidacies are evaluated by the SCM, based on a report issued by the Human Resources Department (analyzing the fulfilment of the legal requirements) and an interview held before the Plenum. The recommendation is submitted then to the President of Romania.

The main amendments of the procedure for secondment of judges and prosecutors concerned the reasoning of the secondment request by the institution submitting it, including a detailed description of the nature and of the specific duties to be carried out by the judge/prosecutor.

The amendments regarding the appointment of judges in prosecutor positions and of prosecutors in judge positions regard several criteria to be taken into account, such as: the workload of the court/prosecutors' office where the judge/prosecutor is functioning, the length of service as magistrate, the length of service at the court/prosecutors' office where they currently activate and the length of service in the degree of jurisdiction similar to the level of jurisdiction where the judge/prosecutor shall be appointed.

Improvement of the procedures for endorsing the search, the temporary detention or the arrest proposals for judges, prosecutors and assistant-magistrates

By the Decision no. 267/2011, the SCM Plenum amended the Regulation of organization and functioning of the Superior Council of Magistracy on the search, the temporary detention or the arrest procedures for judges, prosecutors and assistant-magistrates.

The main amendments are the following:

- the sessions of the section of the Council for deciding on the notifications for the search, temporary detention or arrest of judges, prosecutors and assistant-magistrates shall not be public;
- the verifications shall be comprised within a report that shall indicate the ascertained facts, the judicial nature of the facts, the arguments of the body requesting the approval, as well as the other relevant aspects, including those concerning the admissibility of the request, outside the merits of the case;
- the notifications on the search, the temporary detention or arrest of judges, prosecutors and assistant-magistrates shall be registered by the Judicial Inspection in a non-public registry and shall have attached the report elaborated by the body which formulated the request, the case original file or a certified copy of the file and an index of the file content;
- the notification shall be immediately solved by the specific section of the Council;
- the decisions shall be immediately drafted and shall be kept within the Archive of the Judicial Inspection;
- the files regarding the searches, the temporary detentions or the arrests of judges, prosecutors and assistant-magistrates shall not be available for copying or studying.

Improvement of the procedure for assessing the professional standards and the standards of good reputation

Commission no. 2 "Institutional enhancement and improvement of the SCM and of the coordinated institutions", agreed upon the proposals for improving the assessment of the professional standards and of the standards for good reputation of the magistrates. The main amendments approved by the Commission were the following:

- candidates shall submit certificates attesting the sanctions for contraventions, within the past three years;
- the period of time passed since any disciplinary, administrative or even criminal sanction was applied should be taken into account among the other criteria, when assessing the good reputation;
- the requirement for good reputation shall not be met when the magistrate was convicted for criminal offences involving the professional prestige, even if she/he had been rehabilitated.

Exams

An exam for promotion into positions to the higher courts and prosecutors offices took place on May 8th 2011. 70 judges and 40 prosecutors have been promoted. The final results were validated within the Plenum session on June 15th 2011.

An exam for appointment into leading positions of judges and prosecutors is ongoing starting with April 8th and has to end on July 5th 2011.

The Council decided on June 15th 2011 to submit a legislative proposal to the Ministry of Justice in order to amend the current legislation for making possible a new exam to National Institute of Magistracy to take place in September 2011.

Promotion to the High Court of Cassation and Justice

SCM together with HCCJ and the Ministry of Justice agreed to promote a draft law within an urgent procedure, in order to improve the current procedure for promotion. The draft law was submitted by the Government to the Parliament on May 4th 2011 and presented within the Steering Office of the Deputy Chamber on May 10th 2011. On June 15th 2011, the project was endorsed by the Judicial Commission of the Deputy Chamber, but with a major amendment represented by the replacement of the current method of candidates' evaluation – the interview with a written examination. The new provisions will be analyzed by the Council soon.

The SCM' Section for judges rejected on June 7th 2011 the request formulated by the High Court to undertake a new promotion procedure for filling the vacancies within the Criminal Section, reasoning that objective criteria are needed and expected through the new legislation.

In-service professional training activities on top priorities

- Professional training in the field of the new codes. According to the in-service training program for magistrates, during the referred period (May – June 2011), NIM had organized 4 seminars in the field of civil law and civil procedural law with the participation of 95 judges and 4 seminars in the field of criminal law and criminal procedural law with the participation of 51 judges and 57 prosecutors.
